

Bellefontaine Republican

J. Q. A. CAMPBELL, - - Editor.

TUESDAY, OCT. 11, 1898.

—OFFICE OPPOSITE THE COURT HOUSE—

Entered at the Post Office at Bellefontaine as second-class matter.

The Royal is the highest grade baking powder known. Actual tests show it goes one-third further than any other brand.

GEN. GROSVENOR says the next Senate and House are safe to the Republicans.

On the 18th of October, the American troops will take possession of Porto Rico.

The disorders in France have caused the authorities to order 10,000 more troops to Paris, for fear of a revolution.

Twenty thousand people gave Teddy Roosevelt a reception at the Union League Club house in New York City, Saturday night.

The President will ask Congress to re-voke the office of Admiral for Dewey. This will have the hearty sanction of the people. Dewey looms up head and shoulders above every other hero of the war.

It is said that the people in New York are running over each other in their efforts to get into the Roosevelt meet-ings. When the election is over Mayor Van Wick will be looking for his long lost brother. —Lima Gazette.

It is intimated that the Spanish Com-missioners will not accede to the cession of the Philippines to the United States, and that the Peace Convention may close without any result. In such an event, war would be resumed and Spain would be forced to terms.

The British troops that have returned from Khartoum, are said to be dying like flies, at Alexandria, from enteric disorders, resulting from the eating of canned goods and drinking poor liquors. This seems to be a year when it is about as dangerous for troops to be in the rear, as at the front.

The War Department has issued an order mustering out Major General Cop-inger, Hawkins and Kent, and twenty-five Brigadiers. This is because about 50 per cent. of the volunteers have been mustered out. Those officers who were promoted from the regular army, will resume their former rank and com-mand.

The Indian war is over, and all is quiet on Bear Lake. The Indians say that less than a hundred young bucks were injured, and that none of them were killed. It is reported that four white soldiers were killed. Some reports say five. The sensational reports came from the reporters and alarmed citizens in the rear.

OREGON has at last elected a U. S. Sen-ator. John Joseph Simon, of Portland, was elected Saturday, by the Legislature in joint session, receiving the full Re-publican vote. His vote was 61 to 25 against him. The first caucus nominees of the Republicans had to be dropped, as he could not get enough Republican votes to secure his election.

An American regiment that had been sent to Manzanillo, Cuba, to take pos-session of that city, Friday, came near hav-ing a fight with the Spanish forces there. The Spanish officers in command had received no word from Blanco, and he was not for giving up the place. A com-promise was arranged, and the place was evacuated yesterday.

GEORGE D. BAXTON, a brother of Mrs. McKinley, was found dead on the side-walk in Canton, Friday night. He had been shot by some unknown person. A Mrs. Anna George, a divorced widow, is in jail on suspicion. She is suspected of committing the deed through jealousy of Mrs. Eva Althouse, in front of whose house the murder was com-mitted.

We notice that Senator Forsaker and Lieut. Governor Jones, in their speeches over the State, are very highly praising the State Administration of Governor Bushnell. If Mr. Hanna's Convention expected to make votes by snubbing Bushnell, how is praising his Adminis-tration going to make votes? Some-body's gone wrong, sure.

The Emperor of Germany has decided to take a trip through Turkey and Syria, to see a German church dedicated at Jerusalem, and the Germans are very fearful he will be assassinated by anar-chists or fanatics. They have tried to persuade him to give up the trip, in vain, but he will be closely guarded by a large force of police and detectives. The King of Saxony has been deputized to act as Emperor, temporarily, in case William is killed.

SMALLPOX EPIDEMIC.

Thirty Cases Now Scattered About the State.

At Wapakoneta the Disease Does Not Show the Signs of Abate-ment Which Were Expected.

COLUMBUS, O., October 8.—The small-pox epidemic at Wapakoneta does not show the signs of abatement which were expected and hoped for. The Mayor of that city this morning telegraphed Sec-retary Probst, of the State Board of Health, announcing six new cases dis-covered by physicians in a house canvass for the purpose of vaccinating. The Mayor reports that the house where the disease has made its appearance have been thoroughly disinfected, and the places where the disease exists have been placed under quarantine. It is thought the spread of the disease has been its end. Dr. Probst is sending out the following bulletin:

Columbus, O., October 8, 1898. Dear Sir: Since last report small-pox has been reported in Ohio as follows: Cincinnati, 3 cases; Sandusky, 1 case; Dayton, 1 case; Oberlin, 1 case; St. Marys, 2 cases; New Paris, 1 case; Uniontown, 1 case; Wapakoneta, 20 cases. Small-pox was first officially recognized in Wapakoneta, October 4, 1898. An eruptive disease, undoubtedly small-pox, has been prevailing there since April 18. It is estimated that over 200 cases have occurred, with but one death. Proper precautions are now being taken to limit the spread of the disease. Res-pectfully,

C. O. PROBST, M. D., Secretary.

Yellow Fever Spreading.

The spread of yellow fever in Missis-sippi is becoming alarming. Many towns in the state are infected, and all towns in Central Mississippi are quarantining against other towns. There are hun-dreds of cases, but fortunately they are of a mild character. Those who could leave, fled North. Those who cannot flee are shut in by quarantine officers. Business is entirely suspended, the poor can get no work, and thousands are suf-fering from want. The National Gov-ernment has been appealed to for aid, and it should be furnished at once.

The Governor remained at Jack-son as long as there was com-munication with the outside world. He then left for his home, Bran-son, but on arriving there, was told by the quarantine officers to move on. A heavy frost would be a great blessing to the State.

German Opinion of the Cuban War.

An Associated Press dispatch from Berlin says: Count Von Goetzen's report of the Cuban war operations in the hands of the Minister of War, General Von Gos-seler. It is deemed confidential. The Emperor has carefully read it. Von Goetsen first made a verbal report to the Emperor, who specially inquired as to the morale of the Americans, the differ-ence between the regulars and the vol-unteers, the commissariat and medical arrangements, and the relative courage and spirit of the Americans. Since then His Majesty has put many personal questions to the count. The latter, in the main, reported favorably, dwelling particularly on the dash and valor of the Americans, the superiority of the Mauser rifle, and the poor generalship displayed on both sides. The former German military attaché at Washington also se-vere-ly condemned General Toral's surren-der of Santiago de Cuba.

Dr. Von Holleben, the German Am-bassador to the United States, dined with the Emperor yesterday evening, and dilated upon the patriotism and war fervor of the American people. His Majesty repeatedly expressed astonish-ment.

CAPTAIN HANNAY, of the regular army who has been stationed in Minnesota, says the whites are to blame for the trouble there—that they are trying to get valuable timber lands from the In-dians. Let Congress look after the inter-ests of these wards of the Nation. They are poor and weak, and should have their rights looked after by the Nation.

The Sixth U. S. Immunes and the 47th New York sailed Sunday for Porto Rico. From three to five volunteer regiments now there, will be sent back to the U. S., when these two regiments arrive at San Juan.

SNAP SHOTS WITH A GRAPHO-PHONE.

The Graphophone is to the ear, what the photographic camera is to the eye, and more, for the Graphophone catches instantly and preserves every tint and shade of sound. A most interesting use of a Graphophone is to make rec-ords of your friend's voices to be pre-served for future use. You can catch the story of your jolly friend just as he told it, or the favorite song of some loved one just as she sang it, and have it reproduced perfectly at any time and as often as you please. Besides the Graphophone affords wonderful entertainment in the way of repro-ducing the music of bands, orchestras, or vocal or instrumental soloists. No investment will return so much in pleasure as the purchase of a Grapho-phone. It is the perfect talking ma-chine. Postmaster Zearing has been wired to employ a messenger to carry the mail from East Liberty to Middleburg, and Mr. Lippencott, the hack driver, expects to get the lucrative job.

WAR IMMINENT!

A London dispatch says that France must decide within 48 hours to evacuate Fashoda, on the Upper Nile, or accept war with England. England has sent France an ultimatum to that effect.

A BAD YEAR FOR BOSSES.

The people seem to be having some-thing to say this year, about who shall be elected to office, and if they can't name the nominees, they seem to hold the balance of power and say who shall be elected.

In New York they took the nomi-nation for Governor out of the hand of Boss Platt, and nominated Teddy Roose-velt, and now Platt is throwing up his hat for Teddy.

In Oregon, the Republican can-cus nominated one of the bosses for Sen-ator, who was objectionable to the honest Re-publicans of the Legislature, and he couldn't get enough Republican votes to elect him, and he had to be dropped, and another man was nominated who re-ceived the solid Republican vote.

But it is not strange that the people are waking up, nor is it strange that they are holding their nominations made by trickery, fraud and packing conventions. Bossism has gone to seed, and the peo-ple feel it must be stamped out.

Moreover, the bosses themselves have set the pace for the people. They have not the example for ignoring party lead-ers and have awarded boaters, openly and publicly, and like yellow fever, this thing is catching.

There's the State Republican Com-mittee inviting the worst kicker in the country, Gov. Pingree, of Michigan, to our State to make speeches, and he comes here and denounces publicly the two Republican Senators from his own State.

Then there's the Republican State Convention of Ohio, that purposely and insultingly, at the dictation of its boss, ignored Gov. Bushnell, whose Adminis-tration is one of the cleanest, most economical and most successful the State ever had. Does anybody think that this will promote party harmony or make Bushnell's friends enthusiastic for the ticket? And yet that is the policy that has been forced on the party in Ohio by Boss Hanna.

Then Mr. Hanna set the pace for all boaters, by giving Senator Voight of Hamilton county the best Federal of-fice in that county, when he knew that Voight was elected Senator by holding the Republican ticket and get-ting the support of the Democratic party only last year.

The individual voter will be very apt to feel, if he has a grievance, that he has just as good a right to encourage boating as Senator Hanna has.

All of which teaches that the best way to win victories is to deserve them.

REGARDING THE TROUBLE OF THE D. & L. N. R. R.

It Comes From New York via Cincinnati—Railroad Notes.

Information secured by the Commer-cial Tribune from reliable sources, says the Cincinnati Commercial Tribune, in-dicates that the D. & L. N., which was said in telegraphic dispatches to have been sold a few days ago, still remains in control of C. N. Haskell, J. R. Me-grue and a few other stockholders. The identity of the purchaser was kept a secret, although it was generally ac-credited to Calvin S. Brice.

General Sam Thomas, of New York City, who stands closer than any other person to Calvin S. Brice, made the contract, which was signed by both parties, for the transfer of the entire stock to Mr. Thomas. Mr. Thomas later informed Mr. Haskell that he de-sired to purchase only the interests held by Mr. Haskell, so this would give him a controlling interest in the line. Mr. Haskell refused to consider this propo-sition and informed Mr. Thomas that if he desired to secure control he would have to purchase the interests held by all the other stockholders also. As soon as the contract had been signed an application was made in Judge Ham-mond's court, at Toledo, for the ap-pointment of a receiver. James B. Townsend, of Lima, Ohio, one of Brice's lieutenants, was named. When Mr. Thomas expressed his desire to buy only the Haskell interest Mr. Haskell and his friends at once applied for a co-re-ceiver, in order that their interest might not suffer. Jules S. Basho, of New York City, was appointed co-receiver. Mr. Haskell believed that it was the in-tention of Thomas to secure control of the stock, then throw the road into the hands of a receiver and squeeze the other persons interested in the line. No money, it is said, has ever been paid over by Mr. Thomas and the transfer has not yet been made. Mr. Haskell still continues to dictate the policy of the road. He, together with Colonel Brown, passed over the entire line on an inspection tour yesterday and left last evening for New York City. It is openly stated by those acquainted with the affairs of the company that Mr. Thomas will not buy the stock for which he contracted.

Objections having been made that W. L. Morse could not hold the po-sition of Mayor of West Mansfield, and the postoffice at the same time. Mr. Morse offered to retire from the Mayor's Office, but the Council would not accept his resignation, and the matter having been brought to the notice of the P. M. General, he says there is no law to prohibit Mr. Morse from holding both offices, and "there will be no trouble if you continue to act as Mayor." So Mr. Morse seems to have a cinch on both offices.

The Funny Feat of the Fair.

The "hitch-up" race at the Logan County Fair was an immense success. It was a success from start to finish, from stem to stern, from Dan to Beershe-ba—up, down, on the sides, in the mid-dle, and all over.

Curiosities at first held the great crowd which packed the amphitheater until the event, which was last on the pro-gramme of the days races. But all who waited felt amply repaid. Through a long list of races in which State records were broken, the crowd sat with but half interest, munching peanuts, pop-corn and ice cream candy—and waiting for the "hitch-up" race. On every side could be heard such remarks as "What time does the 'hitch-up' race come off?" "I am ready to go now but I want to see the 'hitch-up' race," "I wouldn't have come today, but I wanted to see the 'hitch-up' race," etc., etc.

At last the much-looked-for event was announced, and as four young men drove out into the ring, in piano box buggies, their hands bespattered with grease, the distance they had traveled to participate in the event, and their "every-day" citizens' clothes proclaiming them to be of the multitude, the sympathy and in-terest of every one in the vast audience was won at once. With a mighty shout the immense crowd rose to their feet every individual on the qui-vive.

Five men entered the race as follows: L. C. McClellan, Cable; Garry Fitzger-ald, Bellefontaine; Frank Beatty, Ken-nard; John Caldwell, West Liberty, and William Longbrake, Loganville.

The four young men drove up to the judges' stand and the rules of the race were read to them—the buggies on the starting line, the horse were to be unhitched and tied behind the vehicles and the harness removed and placed in the buggies, the drivers to be seated in their respective rigs. At the top of the bell they were to jump out, hitch up, and walk their horses the first half mile, the second half mile to be "go as you please." The second half-mile com-pleted, the steeds were to be again un-harnessed and tied behind the buggies and the first driver in his seat, to win the race.

Just as the boys were almost ready to start, Garry Fitzgerald drove into the ring with Clay Y. Lee's snow-white horse and, epic-and-span rig. The sympathy of the ladies was at once enlisted for the beautiful animal and many picked it out as a "sure winner." The other boys looked surprised but held their nerve and when Jerry had unhitched his horse and taken his place in the seat the word was given.

Like a flash the boys sprang to the ground and such a hurried snapping of buckles and tightening of straps was never before seen outside of a fire de-partment. Young L. C. McClellan, of Cable, Champaign county, was the first to jump into his buggy and start off, his shafts adjusting themselves on a line with the horse's ears. Jumping out he buckled an over-looked belly-band and was off again in a jiffy. Garry Fitzger-ald was the next one to start off, with McClellan leading several lengths. However, the white horse proved the better walker and gradually crept up until when the opposite side of the ring was reached, the two rigs were abreast of each other. The remaining horses were too far behind to be considered in the race. At the home stretch the white horse could be seen coming down the track distinctly in the lead and fin-ished up the first half mile several lengths in advance. This was a great advantage, for as Garry was speeding away on a second lap as fast as his horse could gallop, McClellan was forced to walk until he crossed the line. By that time the white horse was turn-ing the curve at the lower end of the track, but the minute McClellan touched the line he stood up in his buggy, grabbed the lines in one hand and making a liberal application of his whip with the other, shot away down the track like a bullet from a Crag Jor-gen rifle. His horse was a magnificent traveler, and from the start steadily gained on the white one. Up the other side of the track they sped. McClellan steadily gaining until at the curve, and it was doubtful which one would "show up" on the home stretch first. Every neck in the amphitheatre was craned as the horses bore in sight again, and a pin could easily have been heard to drop. The white horse was still in the lead however and crossed the line a length or two ahead of his opponent, who was at his side however in a second.

Then began the race to unhitch. Upon this feat depended the result of the race, and the crowd already wrought up to fever heat almost went wild with excite-ment. Women jumped up and down on top of men, threw their hats in air, the storm of cheering that went up cer-tainly would have raised the roof had the sides of the building not been open.

The race seemed decided, but at the last moment Garry became nervous, and while he fumbled at his harness, the other fellow jumped out, and pulling off his harness as slick as a dago skins a ba-nana, pitched it into the buggy, hitched his horse behind, and springing into his seat, the race was won.

If the managers of the fair appreciate "a good thing," a "hitch-up" race will be a permanent feature of future fairs.

COUNTY NEWS.

Ireland.

Mr. D. O. Devore and his grand-daughter O. O. are visiting relatives in Lima.

Mrs. Laura Kerns and daughter Opal of West Mansfield, were guests of relatives here, last Monday.

Every one seemed to be in attendance at the Fair in Bellefontaine, last week, except Miss Pearl Brown, who went to Marysville.

Kenneth Lane arrived Wednesday, on the noon train, from Maryland to make his future home with Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Lane.

J. Ward Lane, of Urbana, and O. D. Lane, of North Lewisburg, made a flying visit here, the first of the week.

Freeman Devore's scow which was suf-fering from strangle blind disease, is much better. His remedy was a tea-spoonful of saltpetre, twice a day, in soft feed.

Frank Baldwin gave a very enjoyable "tag" dinner to a number of his friends, last Sunday.

Our pig died—no fair for us.

Mr. and Mrs. Amzeiah Judy, of Broadway, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Lane, Sunday.

Ben. Devore and Wilhelmus Lane are indisposed—typhoid fever symp-toms.

There was no school at Jericho, last Friday. Teacher and pupils took the county show.

Some of the farmers are already selling corn and hauling to Mingo.

PEARL PRENTICE.

Jefferson Township.

The Logan county fair is over, and the society surely feels grateful to the public for its liberal patronage. In many classes the exhibits were better than ever before. There is room for great im-provement. The receipts at the gate were larger on Thursday, Friday and Saturday than corresponding days one year ago, when the weather was so favorable, and we are not sure but what larger than ever before. If the Board did feel dis-couraged at the beginning it surely re-joiced in the end.

The sad death of Mr. Josiah Reams caused much sorrow in the vicinity, in which he had lived nearly all his life. He was a good citizen, and the family had the sympathy of his many friends.

Misses Ella and Katie Lane, of Findlay, were the guests of Miss Daisy An-trim, last week.

Sam Smith, well known in the vicin-ity, came up from Woodstock, on last Wednesday, to attend the Logan county fair.

Farmers are busily engaged in huck-ing and cribbing corn. The crop is above the average in this township. We never saw wheat look more prom-ising than the present crop. The ground is completely covered already in most of the fields.

It is with sorrow we learn of the death of Mr. J. Croft Smith. Mr. Smith was born and spent most of his life in Jeffer-son township. His genial disposition always won him many friends, he was a good citizen and a true man, and a member of the Presbyterian Congrega-tion of Zanesfield. Our sincere sym-pathy is with the bereaved wife and lit-tle son.

FAIR NOTES.

President Fason and Secretary Cham-berlin certainly have the thanks of the society and especially of the Board of Managers for their untiring efforts for the success of the fair.

The DeGraff people covered them-selves with honors by their good meals. Logan county stands at the head when you go to the dining hall.

John Harner and his assistants received many compliments on their taste and nicely arranged work in Floral Hall.

Art Hall was a thing of beauty and grows better each year.

Leroy Outland's display of "Plymouth Rock" chickens was a great attraction, and he received many orders.

No man on the ground had greater reason for feeling good than Bill Faris, (if he did sprain his ankle) He not only got lots of red cards on his Shrop-shires, but sold out all surplus stock at good prices. Bill will be at the next fair.

Mrs. March's display in pastel and water colors was fine and received many compliments.

Nellie Horn's oil painting was greatly admired, especially the vacant chair. Many others are deserving of notice but space will not permit. The prettiest medleys ever shown in Logan county were exhibited this year.

The "hitch up" race was a "hit" and everybody saw it is the thing out. The poultry tent was a fat failure and everybody loaded down a lot.

All things taken in consideration, Perry Pond did remarkably well in con-trolling the weather. OLD BENJAM.

Rushsylvania.

Earl Wright, of Toledo, visited his parents from Saturday till Monday.

Miss Mabel Melhorn, of DeGraff, is visit-ing her uncle Dr. C. E. Huston, at present.

We are glad to report that Mr. John Grabel is still improving and it is hoped, will be able to be up and around before long.

The Presbyterian C. E.'s had an interest-ing exercise on patriotism, last Sabbath evening. The church was nicely decorated with the National colors and large sized photog-raphs of McKinley, Devore and Shelby. Twenty-five children ranging in age from seven to twelve, with flags, sang a Junior Endeavor song, keeping time with the flags. The principal address was given by Hon. J. P. Bowers on patriotism, and was listened to with interest. The exercises were all cal-culated to inculcate a spirit of true patriot-ism such as can exist only in a Christian nation like ours.

Huntsville. Frank Marsh and wife who have been visiting at Zanesville, returned here last week to remain a few days as guests of Charley Evans.

M. H. Osborn, Mayor of Van Wert, was here Wednesday, on business.

Sergeant Jay L. Harrod, received a tele-gram, Wednesday, informing him of an ex-tension of his furlough for thirty days longer. Our brass band is a coming certainly.

Huntsville will probably organize another reading circle next week.

The Huntsville schools opened yesterday. Miss Laura Miller will open her school in Washington township about the 15th of this month.

Mrs. Maud Henderson, of Lima, was here last week.

Rev. C. G. Smith, the new M. E. minister moved here Wednesday, and preached Sab-bath. He had a good audience and made a good impression.

Fifteen tickets were sold at the Big Four office, Thursday, for Bellefontaine.

Jay L. Harrod and wife are visiting his sister, Mrs. Stella Wagner, at Decatur, Ind.

Hon. Samuel Kemp, of Dayton, last week made his eighth trip for this season to our popular resort at Lake Ridge.

Mrs. P. C. Norriell of this place took very sick on last Friday, supposed to have been a paralytic stroke. She is reported better at this writing.

Prof. Dell Alexander, of Wapakoneta, visited his sister, Mrs. A. C. Miller, over Sun-day.

Torrence Henry last week received a visit from his soldier brother, Bert, of the Third Regiment, home on a furlough.

Joe Parrett and Glen have gone to Fayette county on a wheel.

Rev. Boardman's family left yesterday for their new home at Millersburg.

John Jones left on Saturday evening for an extended trip abroad.

Charles Tudor left for Colorado on the 2nd inst., for an outing and to see the elephant.

Sylvester, Buckeye Bub Smith, of our vil-lage is the happiest boy on the job.

Mrs. Martha Reed returned from Kenton Saturday, where she has been attending the sick-bed of James Reed, who is very sick.

Our vicinity was not largely represented at the fair, Saturday.

Marshall is painting with Willis Harrod, John McCormick puts up flag poles where one is stolen from a school house.

Samuel Hoover has treated his business houses to a new roof.

James Collins has had natural gas connected with his new restaurant.

Charley Day is home from Bellefontaine, the gravel pit not being used any more this season, as operations there are being dis-pensed with by the company.

The Shannon Bailey returned from Colorado the first of the month. His health is somewhat improved.

J. F. Wagle and wife, of Kenton, spent Sunday as guests of their relatives, the Mc-Clellan's.

Our juvenile ball half nine was badly trounced, Saturday, by the New Hampshire nine. Rev. M. Wallace, preached in the United Presbyterian church, Sunday evening.

Sam Flora has moved into the Licklider property.

McArthur township teachers are ar-ranging programs for Lafayette Day, Oct. 19th, for their schools.

Mrs. Stillwell and son, of Springfield, visited her mother, Mrs. Sams, Friday.

Mrs. John Blue, of Warrenton, is very sick at this writing.

Mrs. Elizabeth Sams has been quite sick with rheumatic affliction of late.

Mrs. Peter Demory is slowly recovering from malarial fever.

Oscar Alge, of Everett, Washington State, came Friday evening, as guest of his father-in-law, Henry Evans. He has been absent for several years.

Ed. Travers and wife started home from the fair, Friday evening. When near the stone quarry on Huntsville pike, their family driving mare scared at the south bound passenger train, and dropped dead.

Some one stole the flag rope from the school house No. 6 again.

W. F. Knight and family went to the Yellow Springs and Xenia, last Friday, to visit relatives.
